1. The Direktsiya na Khoteli (Hotel Administration), located at 4 Iskŭr Street, Sofia, controls all hotels in Sofia except the Hotel Bulgariya, which is controlled by "Balkan Tourist", the Government Tourist Agency. The Hotel Administration is responsible to the Sofia City Council.
2. Sofia formerly had 19 hotels. Of these, four have been demolished and two, both on Georgi Dimitrov Boulevard, have been made into student residences.

First Grade Hotels

3. The Slaviyanska Beseda Hotel, a 5-story building on Slaviaynska Street,¹ has 800 beds. An apartment on the first, second, and third floors costs 60 leva per day, while a bed on the fourth or fifth floors costs 16.50 leva. Each room has a telephone. The first two floors of the hotel are reserved for Soviet engineers, chemists, and technicians (and their families) who are employed as experts by the Bulgarian Government.
4. The Moskva Hotel, a 5-story building at No. 3 Triyaditsa Street, has 208 rooms with a total of 800 beds. Each room has a telephone. Prices are slightly lower than those at the Slaviyanski Beseda Hotel.
5. The Vitosha Hotel, a 5-story building at No. 5 Iskŭr Street,² has 50 rooms and a total of 150 to 160 beds. A bed costs 16 leva per day.
6. The Leningrad Hotel, a 5-story building, was opened in 1953. The first two floors are reserved for Soviets.
